To Find the Emaus YouTube Channel

With winter weather, illness or other issues keeping some of us at home on Sunday mornings, it might be helpful to review the process of streaming the worship service on your computer. Art Smith streams the service live and also records it for watching at a later time. Following are the instructions to watch the service live or view it later.

In your web browser (e.g. Edge, Chrome, Safari, Firefox) type in the following or click on this link:

Youtube.com/@emauselca8146/streams

This will bring us to the Emaus YouTube channel. At this point you can Subscribe to the channel and/or Bookmark this page.

There is also a link on the church's website to the YouTube streaming channel.

Blood Pressure Checks

Our Parish Nurse, Carol Eschmann will be available on the first Sundays of each month at 10:00 to do blood pressure checks. She will be stationed outside of the church office.

Community Meals Program

It Emaus' turn to provide food for the Community Meals Program at St. Patrick's Church on Thursday, February 1st. The winter menu will be used which includes Tater Tot Casserole, salad and dessert. Food can be left in the upstairs kitchen before 1:00 on Thursday and will be delivered or you can deliver it to St. Patrick's after 1:00 yourself. Please consider contributing to this ministry. A sign-up sheet will be posted in the narthex.

Scrip Update

Need a gift for that special Valentine? Think Scrip gift cards. Remember that Visa gift cards can be used at most retailers. Orders will be taken February 4 and 18.

Please contact Cathy Meyer at (262)498-4931 or via email at cjanemeyer@yahoo.com.

EASY Newsletter February 2024

Christmas past: Doing for others! The kids spent considerable time painting and decorating wooden blocks for the folks at Primrose Assisted Living. The whimsical designs were well received!

Books! Books on display! It was fun watching the kids peruse the tables full of books in Fellowship Hall. They were invited to pick out 2 books of their choosing for their home library. Yes, reading is fun! They spend 15-20 minutes per day reading alone or with the help of staff, mentors and volunteers.

Science challenge: How does one create a marble maze using a ruler and clothespins? Yes, it does work! Facial expressions say a lot.

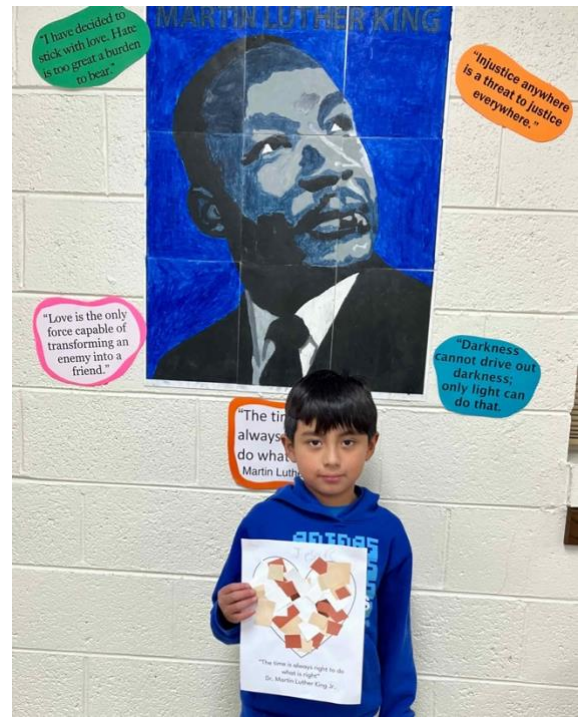

It is a lot of fun to watch the kids get engaged in these projects.

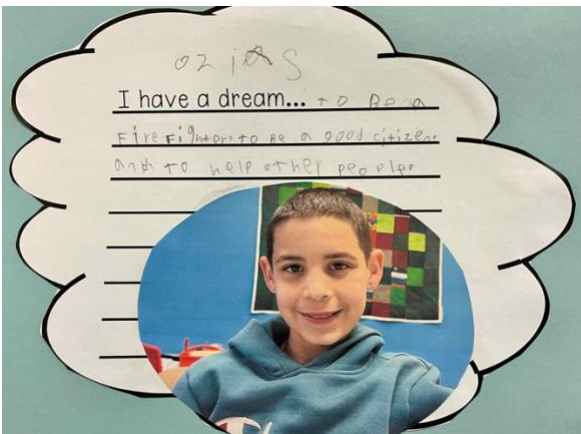

Celebrating Martin Luther King Jr. Day. Art projects, reading, videos, readers theater, worksheets and a word wall quiz game. The skit was recorded: Outreach for Hope is planning to post the skit. You can watch it on the Emaus website. One of our kids went home and shared with her mother how excited she was to have a role in the skit.

"I have decided to stick with love ..."

"I have a dream... to be a firefighter – to be a good citizen and to help other people."

Ozias

"I have a dream that one day there is no more bullying. I dream to be a nurse and to help kids."

Emilia

A big shout out to our mentors! You are such an important part of the EASY program. The kids so look forward to your coming on a weekly basis. Homework help, reading, playing games, and conversation help to build a positive relationship. However, some of our kids do not have a mentor. Please give some thought to spending an hour or two with one of our kids.

Outreach For Hope Dinner Meeting

On January 10th Emaus hosted the Outreach For Hope Winter Ministry Summit. A Mexican buffet was prepared and served by members of Emaus ELCA. The following article and pictures were posted on Facebook:

"Last night our 2024 Ministry Partner Grant awardees and OFH Board met at Emaus ELCA in Racine for our Winter Ministry Partner Summit!

It was great to see friends, celebrate impact, and reflect on how God is calling us to serve our neighbors in the new year. 🙏 Please pray for these leaders, that their ministries may continue to bless and be blessed by all that God is doing in our local communities!"
